Description :

PDF-1ce69 | Before he became known as our country's most infamous traitor, Colonel Benedict Arnold was one of the most beloved, respected and charismatic leaders in colonial America. He could inspire normal soldiers to perform acts of uncommon boldness. It is said that General George Washington, overwhelmed with grief, never fully recovered from the shock of Arnold's defection. Here is a story of bravery une... Arnold's March from Cambridge to Quebec: A Critical Study Together with a Reprint of Arnold's Journal
