Description :

PDF-471f2 | At the age of seven, Loren Schmidtberger was assigned to a beginner's cow the gentlest cow in the herd and the easiest for a child just beginning to milk. As he learned to milk with the help of the cow, he also learned the art of living from the unforgiving reality of the Dust Bowl years tempered by the steadfast resilience of his Volga German community. After he left the family's isolated Kansas ... The Beginner's Cow: Memories of a Volga German from Kansas (American Midwest Series)
