Description :

PDF-24f4d | To this day, more questions than answers surround the 1918 outbreak of a deadly flu pandemic that threatened to destroy the world. History has put death estimates as high as 50 million people worldwide. The American death toll from the flu was more than 10 times than that of World War I. In Canada, the flu started in Halifax and, wearing the name Spanish flu or "Spanish Lady," spread steadily west... Dr. Fred and the Spanish Lady: Fighting the Killer Flu
