Description :

PDF-51386 | Frank Barr was one of the most interesting of the early aviation pioneers in Alaska. At age 28, the former cavalryman, parachute jumper and test pilot, signed on to a Yukon gold expedition in 1932 as a back up pilot. After the expedition failed to find enough gold, Frank Barr stayed in the north country and spent the rest of his career as a bush pilot. He flew every early plane from the Jenny t... Frank Barr: Alaskan Pioneer Bush Pilot and One-man Airline (Caribou Classics)
