Description :

PDF-ab8bb | When we think about women settlers on the Prairies, our notions tend to veer between the nostalgic image of the "cheerful helpmate" and the grim deprivation of the "reluctant immigrant." In Looking Back: Canadian Women's Prairie Memoirs and Intersections of Culture, History, and Identity, Leigh Matthews shows how a critical approach to the life-writing of individual prairie women can broaden and d... Looking Back: Canadian Women's Prairie Memoirs and Intersections of Culture, History, and Identity (The West)
