Description :

PDF-a201e | When Nazneen Sheikh and her psychiatrist husband Cesar honeymooned in Marrakech, she developed a spiritual connection to the city. Impressions of the colours, the people, and the roses lingered with her long after they returned home to Toronto. Their marriage seemed perfect until Cesar disappeared. She learned he was a manic-depressive who had suffered a breakdown.

Everything fell apart: his pract... Moon Over Marrakech: A Memoir of Loving Too Deeply in a Foreign Land
