Description :

PDF-a3c1c | With sextant in hand, Peter Fidler travelled the length and breadth of western Canada in the late 1700's, laying the framework for all maps of the area. He was the first white man to reach the fabled Athabasca country and the first to establish trade contact with the Kootenay Indians in the Canadian Rockies. Despite his huge contribution to the exploration and surveying of the Canadian landscape, ... Peter Fidler: Canadian Explorer (Western Canadian Classics)
