Description :

PDF-3a51c | For over three hundred years, lawlessness in Canada flourished off Canada's east coast. Pirates roamed the North Atlantic, and master storyteller Harold Horwood recounts their action-filled careers, crimes and violent deaths. Privateers—licenced by governments to harass the enemy—aimed to capture enemy ships and plunder their cargo. Among the characters readers meet in these pages are the folk... Plunder and Pillage: Atlantic Canada's Brutal and Bloodthirsty Pirates and Privateers
