Description :

PDF-f9e67 | Begun in 1837 at the recommendation of Ralph Waldo Emerson, Thoreau's Journal covers a period of 25 years until just before his death. The work provided much raw material for his books, and it remains a fascinating record of his thought as it developed over time. The complete Journal comprises 14 volumes and runs more than two million words. This edition offers a delightful one-volume sampler of so... Selections from the Journals (Dover Thrift Editions)
