Description :

PDF-3b8fc | ?At one point in the 1970s, 900 people were engaged with a therapeutic community in Toronto. Living together, and sharing emotional problems, the participants helped to create an institution owning houses, farms, and buildings. Therafields, the largest urban commune in Canada, was created by Lea Hindley-Smith, a woman from England with no formal training in therapy. But she exuded an astounding ch... Therafields: The Rise and Fall of Lea Hindley-Smith's Psychoanalytic Commune
