Description :

PDF-66b3c | The haunting and inspiring true story of a California reporter who adopts the family of abuse victims she's covering—risking her job, and possibly her life. On March 12, 2004, Marcus Wesson murdered nine of his seventeen children. To date, it is the worst mass murder in Fresno, California's history. None of the children was allowed to go to school, go on a date, ride a bike, or play with friends... Where Hope Begins: One Family's Journey Out of Tragedy-and the Reporter Who Helped Them Make It
